

GRADUATE STUDENT APPRENTICE APPLICATION FORM

Applications must be received at the Kennedy Center by March 21st, 2020
Any applications received after this date will not be considered.

This program is designed for currently-enrolled U.S. graduate students who are committed to creating new work for young audiences and looking for an in-depth and behind-the-scenes experience with New Visions/New Voices 2020 TYA Festival and Conference. Selected apprentices will work alongside artistic, administrative, and/or production staff to produce this dynamic gathering and specific duties will be tailored around each selected Apprentice's experience, skillsets, and interest. Duties may include, but are not limited to: assisting with conference sessions and readings, local logistics, staffing the information and registration tables, providing general administrative and/or production support, documenting the event, etc. Graduate Student Apprentices will be fully integrated into the conference and festival as a part of the administrative team. Applicants must possess outstanding organizational and interpersonal skills, great attention to detail, and demonstrate a commitment to the field of theatre for young audiences.
